

Lutundwa Kasese

Financial Advisor

Lutundwa holds an honours degree in Business Enterprise from the Botswana Accountancy College and a Master's degree in Strategic Management from the University of Derby, UK. She specializes in investment advisory, financial planning as well as taxation of investors' expected projects in Tanzania. She joined the firm from the former TIB Corporate Bank, where she handled the business performance and strategies for the bank, including preparation of financial management reports and monitoring the bank's performance.