

Felician D. Hechei

Claims Consultant

Felician holds a Bachelor degree in Civil Engineering with work experience in civil and structural construction, geotechnical engineering, railway engineering, road asset management, project management, design, project appraisal and planning, project claims and valuation, tender evaluation and budget proposals.

Professional Registration Membership: Institution of Engineers Tanzania (IET): Membership No. MIET 1819 (Corporate Member - Civil) Engineers Registration Board (ERB) Tanzania: Membership No. PEng. 5535 (Professional Engineer; Civil) Practising License: Engineers Registration Board (ERB) Tanzania; Licence No; P-A3653

Trainings: Certificate of attending and completing Continuing Professional Development Course on: NEGOTIATION AND MANAGEMENT OF PPP CONTRACTS (With Case Studies) by Association of Consulting Engineers Tanzania (ACET) Training and completing Continuing Professional Development Course on; FIDIC Contracts Module 1: Practical use of 1999 FIDIC Conditions of Contracts and FIDIC Contracts Module 2: Management of Claims and Resolution of Disputes (With Highlights of 2017 Version and Observations based on PPRA)

Experience: Work with World Bank Projects in construction and rehabilitation projects, very conversant in preparation of interim payment certificates and valuation of claims and interim payment certificates. Has been involved in 4 major FIDIC construction and rehabilitation projects financed by the World Bank through IDA. Experienced in preparation of tender documents and procurement of World Bank funded projects and other donor funded including FIDIC condition of contracts.